

Privacy Policy Statement

Version: 1.0.0

Date: 24.11.2019

HmzaMarket takes your privacy and the protection of your personal data very seriously. In compliance with data protection regulations, we process your personal data only if permitted by law or if you have given your consent. This Privacy Policy describes the collection, use, disclosure, storage and protection of your personal information.

General

We are responsible for the collection, use, disclosure, storage and protection of your personal information in accordance with the worldwide privacy policy and applicable law. As described in this section, we may share your personal information with other users of the HmzaMarket app in order to give them the possibility to express their interests in your published ads. We may process and store your personal information in our data centers in the European Union or worldwide.

This Privacy Policy describes the collection, use, disclosure, storage and protection of your personal information. It applies to this app and to any application, service or tool (collectively "Services") that mentions this Privacy Statement, regardless of how you access or use the Services, including access through mobile devices.

Privacy Policy Changes

This privacy policy may be changed at any time by posting the amended version, including the effective date of the amended version.

Collected Personal Data

The HmzaMarket app uses and stores personal information about you and the devices (including mobile devices) you use in the following cases: when you use its services, create an account, provide any information, add or update information about your account, publish ads, or otherwise get in touch with the HmzaMarket app or one of its services.

Some of your personal data (e-mail address, location and telephone information) are required to use the main features of the app. All other personal information is optional, but may be necessary to use our services.

We may also collect personal information from other sources, as listed below.

- The personal data that you provide when using our services or when setting up an account with us, includes the following data:
- Data that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, or user ID (if applicable) that you provide when you set up your account with us.

- Publishing ads, responding to requests, providing data that you specify in a transaction, and other transactional content that you generate. Other content that you generate or that relates to your account.
- In certain cases, when using our services, you may specify age, gender, interests, and personal preferences.
- Data that you submit, by updating or adding data to your account or when we communicate with you for other reasons.
- Data that we are required or entitled to collect and process under applicable law and that we need for your authentication, identification or verification of the information we collect.
- The personal data that we collect automatically when you use our services or when you set up an account with us, includes the following data:
- We collect information about your interaction with our services, your advertising preferences and your communication with us. This is information that we receive from devices (including mobile devices) that you use when accessing our services. This data may include: device ID or unique identifier, device type, advertising ID, and unique device token.
- Location information and geolocation data, including those from your mobile device. Please note that most mobile devices allow you to control or disable the use of location services by an application on your mobile device in the device's Settings menu.
- Computer and connection information such as statistics about your page views, traffic to and from the websites, referral URL, ad data, your IP address, the pages you visit within our website and services, and information from the web server log files.
- Social: We allow you to share information through social networks or use social networking sites to share information such as images with others.

Protection of personal information

We protect your personal information through technical and organizational security measures to minimize loss, misuse, unauthorized access, unauthorized disclosure and alteration. For example, we use firewalls and data encryption, physical access restrictions for our data centers or private clouds, and data access authorization controls.
